

The Ten Commandments

One:

I am the Lord your God; thou shall not have strange gods before me

It commands us to believe and hope in God and love Him above all else.

Don't worship other things more than God.
(Material things, sports, social media, love of self/being selfish)

Superstition, magic, astrology, tempting God, atheism, despair, presumption, addictions.

Two:
Thou shall not take the Lord's name in vain.

Don't curse, don't call on God's name to witness a lie.

Don't condemn or swear.

Three:

Keep holy the Lord's day.

Rest and avoid unnecessary work.
Go to Mass on Sundays and Holy Days to thank and praise God.

Spend time with family and Follow God's word.

Four:

Honor thy Father and Mother

Honor means to love and obey.
Do what is asked (chores, homework, getting along with siblings) and carry out what parents expect of you without complaining.
Disrespect, arguing, yelling and talking back, not owning up to a mistake when asked is sin.

Respect those in authority: teachers, police, grandparents, etc.

Five:

Thou shall not kill.

- Do not kill, hurt, or use violence against another person. Respect all Life

- Do not engage in Fighting, hatred, anger, drug abuse, alcoholism, extreme risk taking, suicide, hurting someone's reputation, and cyber bullying.

Six:

Thou shall not commit adultery

- God created humans as men and women. God give personal dignity equally to each.
- Included in the sixth commandment: pornography, relations outside of marriage, not respecting spouse or marital vows, and lust.

Seven: Thou shall not steal

Universal respect for the rights of private property.

Do not borrow without returning.

Do not destroy or damage.

Downloading movies and music illegally.
plagiarism, abuse of natural resources,
cheating, vandalism, and stinginess.

Eight: You shall not bear false witness against thy neighbor

The eighth commandment teaches us to be truthful and fair

Lying, hypocrisy, bragging, perjury, judging others, irony, gossip, making fun of someone, cheating or copying others work, bad mouthing another online.

Nine:
You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.

Be modest, decent, and chaste. Respect the relationships of others, and do not lust or be jealous or possessive of other friendships.

Ten:

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Be happy for others. Don't Be selfish or jealous.

Be content with what you have been given.